WHO LIVES HERE?

More than 3 ½ million people. It's the 3rd largest city in South Africa.

WHERE IS IT?

Durban is a city on the east coast of South Africa, overlooking the Indian Ocean.

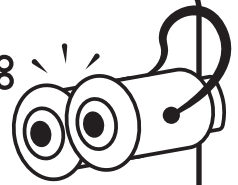

DID YOU KNOW?

Durban is famous for its many beautiful beaches. Some of the most popular are:

- 1 North Beach
- 2 Addington Beach
- 3 Umhlanga Rocks
- 4 Diary Beach
- 5 Ansteys Beach

PLACES TO SEE:

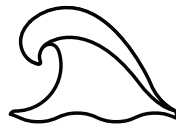

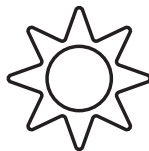

uShaka Marine World

- This theme park in Durban includes a water park and Africa's largest aquarium.
- It's one of the main attractions of the Golden Mile, a stretch of boardwalk and popular beaches.
- More than 10,000 animal species, including dolphins, seals, stingrays, turtles, sharks, and penguins live here.
- It contains 4.6 million gallons of water.

Moses Mabhida Stadium

- This football stadium was built in 2009 and hosted the World Cup in 2010.
- Holds up to 75,000 people.
- It's home to the world's tallest swing, according to the Guinness Book of World Records—a rope swing that's more than 31 stories high!

FUN FACTS:

- People who live in Durban speak three main languages: English, Zulu, and Xhosa.
- "Bunny chow" is a famous Durban dish—curry served in a hollowed-out loaf of bread.

- Durban's ocean is warm all year round, which is why so many tourists come to swim and surf.
- Durban was home to South Africa's first steam engine railway, built in 1860.
