Almost 5 million people.

WHERE IS IT?

Jeddah is a city in Saudi Arabia,
on the coast of the Red Sea.

DID YOU KNOW?

Jeddah is one of Saudi Arabia's busiest ports, and was an important location on ancient trade routes where some of the things people exchanged included:

- 1 Silk
- 2 Spices
- 3 Incense
- 4 Precious stones

PLACES TO SEE:

King Fahd's Fountain

- Also known as the Jeddah Fountain, it's the tallest fountain in the world.
- Shoots water into the air nearly 60 stories high!
- The fountain's water can travel faster than a bullet train.
- The fountain, which uses water from the Red Sea, is illuminated at night by more than 500 LED spotlights.

Jeddah Corniche

- The city's famous waterfront, one of the reasons Jeddah is a hot spot for vacationers.
- Packed with beaches, hotels, restaurants, shops, gardens, and plenty of other attractions.
- You can visit Jeddah's open-air sculpture museum here, which displays more than 20 huge and famous works of art.

FUN FACTS:

- The city's motto is "Jeddah Ghair," which means "Jeddah is different."
- One of Jeddah's most famous sculptures is a giant metal bicycle, known as Midan Addarajah
- Arabic is the official language of Saudi Arabia, but many Jeddah residents also speak English.
- Jeddah is home to the world's tallest flagpole!
